

AHWENEHAODE

INDIGENOUS JUSTICE PROGRAM

SERVICES INCLUDE (but are not limited to)

- Referrals to traditional services and elders/knowledge carriers
- OW, ODSP and CPP-Disability Applications
- Preparation of Gladue Briefs for ODSP
- Support in areas of Employment, Tenancy (maintenance concerns, eviction notices, LTB) & consumer debt law
- Federal Indian Day School Class Action support to prepare your story (Deadline: July 13, 2022)
- Clinic Service: Notorization
- Traditional healing and wellness plans of care
- Client advocacy
- Cultural workshops and public legal education sessions
- Referrals to areas of law such as human rights, criminal and family
- Referrals to community resources

GLADUE SERVICES

OBJECTIVES

- To help Indigenous people heal through a process and/or system by validating and honouring Indigenous experiences, teachings, customs and practices
- To help Indigenous people better manage present conflict with a view to prevent it in the same, or other systems in the future

ELIGIBILITY

- Self identified Indigenous people
- Financially qualified for clinic services

CONTACT US

LU ROBERTS
Indigenous Justice Coordinator

E-mail: lu.roberts@wrcls.clcj.ca

WATERLOO REGION COMMUNITY
LEGAL SERVICES

Office: 519-743-0254

Cell: 519-505-1674

Fax: 519-743-1588

Web Contact Form: www.wrcls.ca

ADDITIONAL RESOURCES

STEPS TO JUSTICE

For reliable and practical answers to most legal inquiries visit www.stepstojustice.ca

DEHSAHSODRE LEGAL SERVICES
Criminal and Family Indigenous Court Support
Healing of the Seven Generations
Phone: (519) 570-9118
<https://healingofthesevengenerations.ca/programs/court-supports/>

FEDERAL DAY SCHOOL CLASS ACTION

<https://indiandayschools.com/en/>
Phone: 1-888-221-2898